THE INTERNAL REVENUE ACT.

[OFFICIAL]

Laws of the United States.

Passed at the Second Session of the Thirty-seventh Congress.

[PUBLIC ACT No. 97.]

An Act to provide internal revenue to support the Government and to pay interest on the public debt.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That for the purpose of superintending the collection of internal duties, stamp duties, licenses, or taxes imposed by this act, or which may be hereafter imposed, and of assessing the same, an office is hereby created in the Treasury Department to be called the office of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue; and the President of the United States is hereby authorized to nominate, and with the advice of the Senate to appoint a Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with an annual salary of four thousand dollars, who shall be charged, and hereby is charged, under the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury, with preparing all the instructions, regulations, directions, forms, blanks, stamps, and licenses, and distributing the same, or any part thereof, and all other matters pertaining to the assessment and collection of the duties, stamp duties, licences and taxes which may be necessary to carry this act into effect, and with the general superintendence of his office, as aforesaid, and shall have authority, and hereby is authorized and required, to provide proper and sufficient stamps or dies for expressing and denoting the several stamp duties, or the amount thereof in the case of per centage duties, imposed by this act, and to alter and renew or replace such stamps from time to time, as occasion shall require; and the Secretary of the Treasury may assign to the office of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue such number of clerks as he may deem necessary, or the exigencies of the public service may require, and the privilege of franking all letters and documents pertaining to the duties of his office, and of receiving free of postage all such letters and documents, is hereby extended to said commissioner.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That, for the purpose of assessing, levying and collecting the duties or taxes hereinafter prescribed by this act, the President of the United States be and he is hereby authorized to divide, respectively, the States and Territories of the United States and the District of Columbia into convenient collection districts, and to nominate and, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, to appoint an assessor and a collector for each such district, who shall be residents within the same: Provided, That any of said States and Territories and the District of Columbia, may, if the President shall deem it proper, be erected into and included in one district: Provided, That the number of districts in any State shall not exceed the number of representatives to which such State shall be entitled in the present Congress, except in such States as are entitled to an increased representation in the Thirty eighth Congress, in which States the number of districts shall not exceed the number of representatives to which any such State may be so entitled: And provided, further, That in the State of California the President may establish a number of districts not exceeding the number of Senators and Representatives to which said State is entitled in the present Congress.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That each of the assessors shall divide his district into a convenient number of assessment districts, subject to such regulations and limitations as may be imposed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, within each of which he shall appoint one assistant assessor, who shall be resident therein; and each assessor and assistant assessor so appointed, and accepting the appointment, shall, before he enters on the duties of his appointment, take and subscribe before some competent magistrate, or some collector, to be appointed by virtue of this act, (who is hereby empowered to administer the same,) the following oath or affirmation, to wit: "I, A B, do swear, or affirm (as the case may be,) that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the United States of America, and I will support the Constitution thereof, and that I will, to the best of my knowledge, skill, and judgment, diligently and faithfully execute the office and duties of assessor for (naming the assessment district,) without favor or partiality, and that I will do equal right and justice in every case in which I shall act as assessor." And a certificate of such oath or affirmation shall be delivered to the collector of the district for which such assessor or assistant assessor shall be appointed. And every assessor or assistant assessor acting in the said office without having taken the said oath or affirmation, shall forfeit and pay one hundred dollars, one moiety thereof to the use of the United States, and the other moiety thereof to him who shall first sue for the same, with costs of suit.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That before any such collector shall enter upon the duties of his office, he shall execute a bond for such amount as shall be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, under the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury, with not less than five sureties, to be approved as sufficient by the Solicitor of the Treasury, containing the condition that said collector shall faithfully perform the duties of his office according to law, and shall justly and faithfully account for and pay over to the United States, in compliance with the order or regulations of the Secretary of the Treasury, all public moneys which may come into his hands or possession, which bond shall be filed in the office of the First Comptroller of the Treasury. And such collector[s] shall, from time to time, renew, strengthen, and increase their official bond, as the secretary of the Treasury may direct.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That each collector shall be authorized to appoint, by an instrument of writing under his hand, as many deputies as he may think proper, to be by him compensated for their services, and also to revoke any such appointment, giving such notice thereof as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue shall prescribe; and may require bonds or other securities and accept the same from such deputy; and each such deputy shall have the like authority, in every respect, to collect the duties and taxes levied or assessed within the portion of the district assigned to him which is by this act vested in the collector himself; but each collector shall in every respect be responsible both to the United States and to individuals, as the case may be, for all moneys collected, and for every act done as deputy collector by any of his deputies whilst acting as such, and for every omission of duty: Provided, That nothing herein contained shall prevent any collector from collecting himself the whole or any part of the duties and taxes so assessed and payable in his district.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of any person or persons, partnerships, firms, associations, or corporations, made liable to any duty, license, stamp, or tax imposed by this act, when not otherwise and differently provided for, on or before the first day of August, eighteen hundred and sixty-two, and on or before the first Monday of May in each year thereafter, and in all other cases before the day of levy, to make a list or return to the assistant assessor of the district where located, of the amount of annual income, the articles or objects charged with a special duty or tax, the quantity of goods, wares, and merchandise made or sold, and charged with a specific or ad valorem duty or tax, the several rates and aggregate amount, according to the respective provisions of this act, by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, under the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury, for which such person or persons, partnerships, firms, associations, or corporations are liable to be assessed under and by virtue of the provisions of this act.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That the instructions, regulations, and directions, as hereinbefore mentioned, shall be binding on each assessor and his assistants, and on each collector and his deputies, in the performance of the duties enjoined by or under this act, pursuant to which instructions the said assessors shall, on the first day of August eighteen hundred and sixty-two, and on the first Monday of May in each year thereafter, ... from time to time ... this act ... proceed through every part of their respective districts, and inquire after and concerning all persons being within the assessment districts where they respectively reside, owning, possessing, or having the care or management of any property, goods, wares and merchandise, articles or objects liable to pay any duty, stamp, or tax, including all persons liable to pay a license duty under the provisions of this act, (by inspecting, as well, any lists of assessment or collection taken under the laws of the respective States, and any other records or documents, and by all other lawful ways and means,) especially to the written list, schedule, or return required to be made out and delivered to the assistant assessor by all persons owning, possessing, or having the care or management of any property as aforesaid, liable to duty or tax, to value and enumerate the said objects of taxation, respectively, in the manner prescribed by this act, and in conformity with the regulations and instructions before mentioned.

Mr S S Spencer, of Lane county, had a three year old bull "King," graded one half Devon and one half Durham, weight 1800 pounds, color strawberry roan, took first premium in sweepstakes.

Next was the stock of J. Southwell, also of Lane county. Two three year old Durham cows, one took first and the other second premium in thoroughbred. Also, two thorough bred Durham bulls, both of which took premiums, also two yearling heifers.

Mr Cross, of Marion county, had thirteen head of cattle on exhibition, among which was one thoroughbred Durham bull, "Young Admiral," bred by Samuel Thorn, of Thorns [illegible] Mr Cross has taken much pains in the rearing of fine blooded stock, all of which showed well, although he took no premiums.

We have now given the principal list of stock noticed by us on exhibition, of which we were able to learn the names of owners and the awards of premiums. We will however add, that there was a large number of sheep and a fair number of hogs on exhibition. The stock quality of the sheep was principally Southdowns, French and Spanish Merinos and Saxons, and of hogs Berkshire and Irish. There was no poultry or fowls of any kind on exhibition, nor farming implements or machinery, besides many other articles which were expected. The condition of the weather no doubt prevented many people from coming who would have brought with them perhaps twice the number of stock and articles that were on exhibition, besides many other articles not shown. From our limited acquaintance with the people of the State we will further state that we believe the principal number of people and articles on exhibition came from the extremes of the State, having probably started before the rains commenced, while those nearer the Fair grounds remained at home until they were satisfied that the weather would be so disagreeable as to seriously interfere with the prospect of a fair show, besides exposing themselves, articles and stock to the chilling rain and nasty mud.

Fourth and Last Day---October 3d, 1862.

Notwithstanding the fact that the rain continued to fall and cold winds blew throughout the day, a large number of people, near five thousand, congregated upon the Fair grounds at an early hour. Posters had been put up announcing the regular order of the day, but owing to the general mismanagement which we regret to say characterized the whole proceedings of most of the officers appointed to conduct the affair, no particular order was observed, things transpiring just as [illegible] might occur, without notice or system. We believe the first thing of note that took place was a [illegible] race around the track. Not [illegible] present to witness it we are unable to give any of the particulars further than we [illegible] heard that the race was won by Mr [illegible] Richmond horse [illegible]

[illegible] After which [illegible] [illegible] a single dash of a mile against time [illegible] Next was a trotting match [illegible] Black Hawk [illegible] Black Hawk [illegible] less than four minutes. We [illegible] the trotting [illegible] After the trotting match the Marshal [illegible] what [illegible] the [illegible] the Marshal [illegible] gave out that the [illegible] would be delivered there and then from the judges' stand on the race track. [illegible] was then provided with a [illegible]

the [illegible] and [illegible] after waiting a [illegible] moments [illegible] that [illegible] would [illegible] the [illegible] to the stage [illegible] seven or eight hundred anxious hearers which [illegible] and [illegible] the stand [illegible] number of individuals were [illegible] to keep [illegible] and [illegible] proper [illegible] it impossible [illegible] [illegible] that [illegible] from the winds [illegible] all that was said by the [illegible] that it [illegible] [illegible] people [illegible] [illegible] who were [illegible] [illegible] was [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] were unable to learn the names of [illegible] their owners.

The next thing was horseback riding by eleven ladies. A large ring was formed by the crowd on the inside of which the ladies rode [illegible] the [illegible] the centre while the ring [illegible] After considerable parleying between the judges [illegible] was finally agreed upon awarding the premiums as follows:

Miss Lucy, 1st premium [illegible] $80 saddle [illegible] thin [illegible]

Mrs Wigle, 2d premium, a $40 saddle, [illegible] serviceable than costly.

Miss Brown, [illegible] premium, a $12 riding hat which we did not see.

As in most if not all the awards made during the Fair, the awards in this instance produced considerable dissatisfaction among a large number of outsiders, while several of the ladies interested exhibited no little disappointment, in which there was quite a display of pretty pouting lips and proud haughty looks, indicating a strong desire to give those ugly gentlemen judges a regular [illegible]. We felt glad that we were not one of the number, for had we been we should never have been able to decide which was the best, not only from the fear of accidentally meeting one or more of the disappointed ones hereafter, but also from the fact that they were all elegant, graceful and expert riders, besides being beautiful and lovely creatures. Every one of the disappointed ladies had our sympathy, one or two a little more than the others, but we dare not say which.

This being the last, and had it not been for the rain, the most pleasing sight to be seen at the Fair, the crowd began to disperse, and in a few minutes all that could possibly find shelter in Salem or reach home before night began to scatter out and make tracks for more comfortable quarters. By ten o'clock Saturday morning last, most, if not all, had left the Fair grounds for home.

We design, as soon as correct copies can be procured, to publish the entire list of entries in their regular order, as also the list of premiums awarded, and all other statistical and general facts connected with this the second annual State Fair, the foregoing being only a hasty sketch from notes taken while on the ground.

Salem Correspondence

SALEM, Oct. 1, 1862.

Editor Oregonian:

We had an avalanche of rain last night, but the earth was so dry that it swallowed up pretty much all of it by 9 o'clock this morning. It has been clear and cloudy, rainy and sun shiny by turns all day long. We shall probably have a rain to-night and a good day to-morrow. We hope so, at least.

The rain doubtless keeps back thousands from the Fair; still there are a great many people present, and they are constantly coming in. Our Oregonians don't mind a little rain, but the story that they are web footed is a great mistake.

The stock is a great feature of the Fair—horses, cattle, sheep, hogs and rabbits. I don't think the display of fruits as fine as at the Clackamas Fair, nor do I believe the Ladies' Departments are so well filled. The people of Salem are very fashionable, very lofty in their household [illegible], living on the best of the land, but they do not prove these facts by liberal offerings on the exhibition tables. They didn't know what was wanted of them, they say. They have now learned, and if they do not do better at the next State Fair than they have this, they will not do very much. The same facts may be stated in regard to the Department of Farm Products—Marion county could have filled all the tables with offerings. They could have presented collections of fruit not to be outdone in the world, but I am inclined to the opinion that [illegible] the fruit exhibited [illegible] some five or six parcels was from other counties. Philip Ritz, of Lane county, had many fine specimens, and so had J. D. Walling, of Polk. Williams' [illegible] of fruit was good, and so was that of Owen Bear. Mr [illegible] of Coose, the excellent Superintendent of Department VII, brought a single specimen of the white [illegible] from the coast, which measured eight inches in circumference—the size of a [illegible] Capital county, [illegible] of this is a fair specimen of the productions of that region.

There was a large exhibition of cloths from the Willamette Woolen Factory. That Factory is steadily advancing in the perfection of the different kinds of fabrics which it is employed in manufacturing. [illegible] [illegible] with all sensible people [illegible] much more [illegible] they are far more serviceable than cloths brought from the East. This factory [illegible] Willamette Factory goods. I [illegible] to purchase enough to make myself a suit [illegible] but was prevented by the apprehension that if I paid out my money for this purpose I should not have enough left to enable me to reach home.

Among the contributions at the Fair were two [illegible] from the factory of A. B. [illegible] & Co. [illegible] The metal [illegible] excellent and [illegible] the [illegible] gentlemen [illegible] of the highest [illegible] in which the [illegible] their manufactures.

There is a millinery contribution from your city which takes the eyes and attention of the ladies at the Fair. This contribution consists of three bonnets and three hats [illegible] for [illegible] perfect [illegible] they were made by Mrs [illegible] here [illegible] may be sure that [illegible] Portland [illegible] the [illegible] Pacific coast. It was [illegible]

Details of News

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 2[illegible] [illegible] Fortress Monroe report that [illegible] military movements have been in progress in the vicinity for several days past. A [illegible] marched from Suffolk [illegible] in the direction of the Blackwater [illegible] for the purpose of intercepting the rebel [illegible] guard supposed to be marching on Norfolk. The enemy, however, having heard of our approach, could not be found.

A great movement of rebel troops is reported between Richmond and Petersburg. Several foraging expeditions from Norfolk have brought in great quantities of wheat and corn. A large number of negroes were also brought in.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—Rumors at Washington say the President contemplates issuing a proclamation making Florida a [illegible] plantation and inviting [illegible] white and black, to settle there. They are to have ample protection from the army and navy. Florida is to be reduced to a Territorial condition. The movement is said to be preliminary to the policy to be adopted hereafter with the other Southern States.

A report from Apalachicola says two [illegible] iron clad gunboats are nearly [illegible] there.

The Tribune's Washington dispatch has a rumor that Seward is about to resign the portfolio of the State Department to Edward Everett. The rumor grows out of the fact that Everett is in Washington at the President's invitation, and is consulted [illegible] on foreign affairs, in regard to which his views are understood to differ from those of Seward.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—Thirty guerrillas with a hundred guns (muskets) were [illegible]

LOUISVILLE, Sept. 27.—The rebels on Wednesday night deserted the bridge over Salt River at Shepardsville. This would seem to indicate that Bragg no longer entertains designs on this city. He needed to hold this bridge. The rebels appear to be falling back in the direction of Danville. No statements of a reliable character are given as to Kirby Smith's whereabouts.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—New Orleans advices give an order by General Butler requiring foreign residents in that department to report to the Provost Marshal. The order says that in the course of ten days it might become necessary to distinguish disloyal from loyal citizens and honest neutral foreigners. Gen. Butler threatened to punish [illegible] [illegible] foreign alle[illegible] [illegible]

CAIRO, Sept. 27.—The steamer [illegible] was fired into by guerrillas at Island No. [illegible] on Wednesday. The town was burned in consequence. This policy has been adopted and will be rigidly enforced in [illegible] Kentucky.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. [illegible]7.—The Military Commission for the trial of General McKinstry has allowed the proceedings to be reported in the newspapers. There is but one charge, of neglect of duty. The specifications are over fifty in number. General Fremont will be summoned as a witness to show that McKinstry acted under his orders.

European news is unimportant. It was reported that the Confederates were having [illegible] building numerous steamers in England and building a ram on the river Mersey.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—The Times has news from Winchester to Wednesday, 24th. A large force of rebels were there, much demoralized and suffering for want of food. All the negroes in the neighborhood had been impressed to work at the fortifications. The rebels were apprehensive that their communications and supplies would be cut off by a movement from Washington and [illegible] All public buildings and [illegible] dwellings in Winchester were used as hospitals.

DENTAL.—We forgot to mention among the articles on exhibition at the State Fair [illegible] fine specimens in the [illegible] Dentistry by Doctor Skiff, of Salem. These specimens were very fine indeed, presenting a high order of proficiency and skill in this important science seldom seen or equaled on this coast. As a matter of course, the [illegible] prize was given Doctor Skiff, which in all probability would have been awarded him had there been other competition, but there was, however, no competition.

APPOINTED.—We understand that Mr [illegible] W. [illegible] has been appointed [illegible] Agent at the Umatilla Reservation in place of W. H. Barnhart, who [illegible] [illegible] of which [illegible] [illegible] Agency.

THE SIGEL AND McDOWELL RUMOR.—Gen. Sigel's corps opened the battle in front of Washington, and it was kept up from morning until the afternoon, when Gen. Pope came upon the field. As Gen. Sigel knew the positions of the troops and the topography best, having studied both, Gen. Pope deferred to him during the first part of the day. In regard to the report that Sigel shot McDowell upon the field, the Washington Republican has this to say:

"The battle, it is said, was planned and commanded on our part, for the greater portion of the time, by Gen. Sigel, who gave orders to our forces to hold their positions and await an attack by the enemy, supposed to be Jackson, instead of this, Gen. McDowell, who held the extreme left, advanced and attacked Longstreet's division on the enemy's right. He was met by a terrible fire from the rebels, during which Gen. Stockton's brigade was terribly cut up, and McDowell was forced to give way."

And a party from the battle-field gives to the New York Democrat the following version of the origin of the story:

"Sigel had taken numerous prisoners, and commanded them to be sent to the rear of the army, to be transported to Washington. The way led through McDowell's camp, who refused to let the prisoners and their escort pass. Gen Sigel thereupon instructed the Colonel of the escort to shoot McDowell, if the latter refused him passage through his camp again. McDowell did so, but submitted when the Colonel told him what he had been instructed to do by Gen. Sigel. But in the marching backwards and fowards most of the prisoners seem to have escaped."

The Democrat editorially remarks:

"We give this explanation as we have received it, and do not consider the facts at all impossible. We have repeatedly said that jealousy was the greatest drawback to the harmonious co-operation of our generals. It is very evident that Sigel is regarded with particular jealousy. The campaign is evidently not carried on according to his views, and he does not disguise it, he is persecuted with particular enmity."

The Richmond Examiner says the amount of property confiscated to the Rebel Government would average $40,000 a day, and that was as long ago as June 3d! Yet the United States Government must not confiscate! Out upon ye, hypocrites!

The permanent population of San Francisco is estimated at 85,825, and the floating population at 8,000. The assessed property equals $55,060,000. Among the population there are only 3,250 Chinese and 1,874 Africans.

CONSTITUTIONAL DEMOCRATS.—Large numbers of the Knights of the Golden Circle have been arrested in Illinois and Indiana, and confined in the Military prisons, at Cairo.

A physician in speaking of the frail constitution of the women of the present day, remarked that we ought to take great care of our grandmothers, for we should never get any more.

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY'S

Private Medical & Surgical Institute,

SACRAMENTO STREET, BELOW MONTGOMERY,
Opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Company's Office San Francisco.

ESTABLISHED IN 1854 FOR THE PERMANENT cure of all Chronic and Private Diseases, and the SUPPRESSION OF QUACKERY. Attending physician, L. J. CZAPKAY, M. D., late in the Hungarian Revolutionary War, Chief Physician to the 20th Regiment of Honveds, Chief Surgeon to the Military Hospital of Pesth, Hungary, the late lecturer on diseases of the urinary organs and diseases of Women and Children, and Honorary Member of the Philadelphia College of Medicine.

☞ Particular attention paid to the treatment of diseases peculiar to Women and Children.

Office Hours from 9 A. M. to 9 P. M.

☞ Communications strictly confidential. Permanent cure guaranteed or no pay. Consultations by letter or otherwise, FREE.

Address, DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, San Francisco.

Of all diseases the first great causes,
Springs from neglect of Nature's laws.

To the Afflicted!

Suffer not when a cure is guaranteed in all stages of secret diseases—Self-Abuse, Nervous Debility, Syphilis in all its stages, Strictures, Gleet, Gravel, Diabetes, diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Mercurial Rheumatism, Scrofula, Pains in the Bones and Ankles, diseases of the Lungs, Throat, Nose and Eyes, Ulcers upon the Body or Limbs, Cancers, Dropsy, Epileptic Fits, St. Vitus Dance, and all diseases arising from a derangement of the sexual organs, such as Nervous Trembling, Loss of Memory, Loss of Power, General Weakness, Dimness of Vision with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes, Loss of Sight, Wakefulness, Dyspepsia, Liver Disease, Eruptions upon the Face, Pains in the Back and Head, Female Irregularities, and all improper discharges of both sexes. It matters not from what cause the disease originated, however long standing, or obstinate the case, recovery is certain, and in a shorter time than a permanent cure can be effected by any other treatment, even after the disease has baffled the skill of eminent physicians, and resisted all their means of cure. The medicines prescribed are pleasant, without odor, causing no sickness, and free from mercury or balsam. During fifteen years of practice in Europe, the Atlantic States and California, I have rescued from the jaws of death many thousands, who, in the last stages of the above mentioned diseases, had been given up to die by their physicians, which warrants me in promising to the afflicted, who may place themselves under my care, a speedy and permanent cure. Private diseases are the greatest enemies to health, as they are the first cause of consumption, scrofula, and many other diseases, and should be a terror to the human family. A permanent cure is scarcely ever effected—a majority of cases falling into the hands of incompetent persons, who not only fail to cure the disease, but ruin the constitution, filling the system with mercury, which, with the disease, hastens the sufferer into a rapid consumption. But should the disease and the treatment not cause death speedily, and the victim marries, the disease is entailed upon the children, who are born with feeble constitutions, and the current of life corrupted by a virus which betrays itself in scrofula, tetter, ulcers, eruptions and other affections of the skin, eyes, throat and lungs, entailing upon them a brief existence of suffering, and consigning them to an early grave.

Self-Abuse is another formidable enemy to health, for nothing else in the dread catalogue of human diseases causes so destructive a drain upon the system, drawing its thousands of victims through a few years of suffering down to an untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system, rapidly wastes away the energies of life, causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system, disqualifies for marriage, society, business, and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind, predisposed to consumption and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself. With the fullest confidence I assure the unfortunate victims of self-abuse that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected, and with the abandonment of ruinous practices, my patients can be restored to robust, vigorous health.

Irregularities and all diseases of males and females treated on principles established by fifteen years of practice, and sanctioned by thousands of the most remarkable cures. Medicines, with full directions, sent to any part of the State, Oregon and Washington Territory, by patients communicating their symptoms by letter.

All business correspondence strictly confidential. Address, DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, Medical Institute, Sacramento street, below Montgomery, opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Co.'s Office, San Francisco.

Remarkable Instance of Medical Relief

Below we publish the certificates of three of the sufferers from the pangs of disease, who, having recovered their former health, and impelled by gratitude, desire to make known their cases and remedial agent, and their statements are authenticated by a Notary Public. Dr. L. J. Czapkay, San Francisco:—[illegible] of your medicine and [illegible] thank [illegible] [illegible]

Thankfulness is the incentive to gratitude.

[illegible] Prompted by an honest desire of my heart, I [illegible] before the public a case which deserves commendation not only as an act of scientific skill, but that of [illegible]. About two years ago, I suddenly, and from causes unknown to me, was seized with a fit of epilepsy, which, owing to my inability to meet the expenses consequent upon a thorough medical treatment, and the discouragement which I met with on attempting it, soon became such I was then led to believe one to defy the skill of any physician. I was frequently, while in pursuit of my calling, thrown down to the ground without the slightest warning; and although [illegible] to the agonies, I yet despised the misery of my life, and soon I turned to look upon those who would render me [illegible] me from danger as enemies who [illegible] to prolong the existence of his [illegible], and having, previous to my affliction, [illegible] I once more was induced to attempt [illegible] and by recommendation called upon Dr. L. J. Czapkay [illegible] him of my circumstances, [illegible] him for his services, regardless [illegible] he at once undertook my case and with the blessing of God I was once more restored to perfect health. Unable to reward him for the boon which I enjoy at present, and yet conscious of my indebtedness, I consider it due to myself and [illegible] to make the case public, in order that those in need of medical advice may find a physician in whom every confidence can be placed.

MEYER YABLONSKY.
